

Follow The Dots

Directions: Read/say aloud all of the target words. Start on the arrow and say the word. Use your ink dauber to dot each circle as your travel to the next picture. Be sure to say the target word using your best speech before dotting each circle.

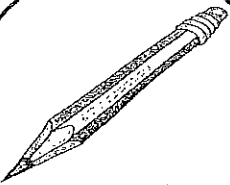

Looking For Dots

Directions: Read/say aloud all the words in the squares. Listen carefully as your instructor says one of the words. Find the little circles that contain the corresponding picture. Repeat the word once, and then dot one little circle. Continue repeating the word until you have dotted each little circle that contains the corresponding picture.

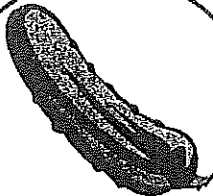

Dotting Circles

Directions: Read/say aloud all the words in the large circles. Then, take your ink dauber and mark each little circle as you say the picture eight times using your good P sound.

pencil

A large central circle contains a pencil illustration and the word "pencil". It is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

pickle

A large central circle contains a pickle illustration and the word "pickle". It is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

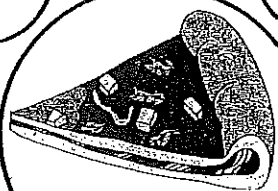

panda

A large central circle contains a panda illustration and the word "panda". It is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

piano

A large central circle contains a piano illustration and the word "piano". It is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

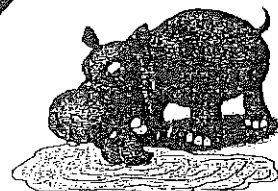

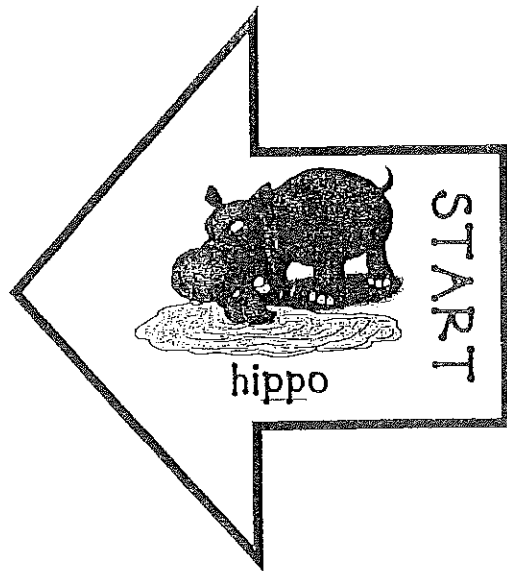

pizza

A large central circle contains a slice of pizza illustration and the word "pizza". It is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

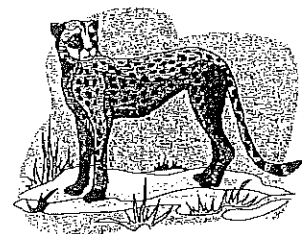

Follow The Dots

Directions: Read/say aloud all of the target words. Start on the arrow and say the word. Use your ink dauber to dot each circle as you travel to the next picture. Be sure to say the target word using your best speech before dotting each circle.

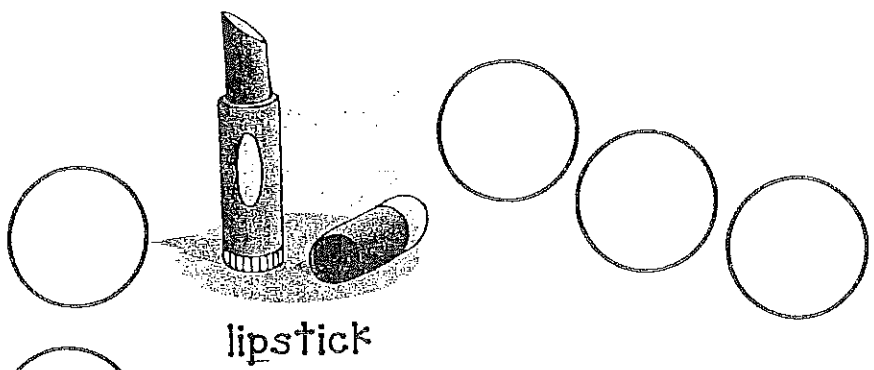

hippo

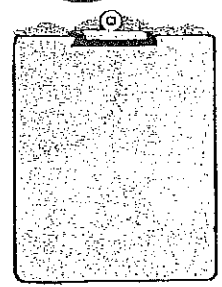

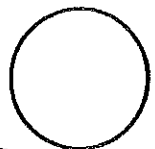

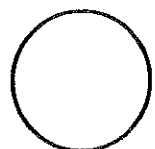

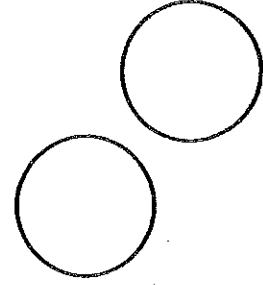

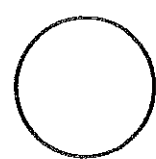

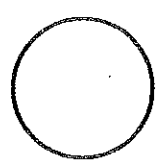

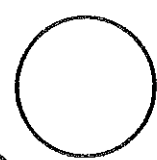

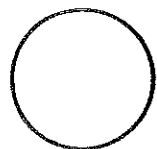

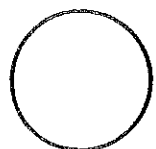

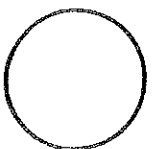

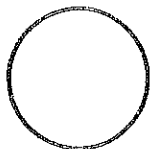

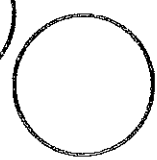

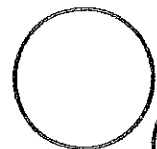

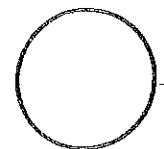

START

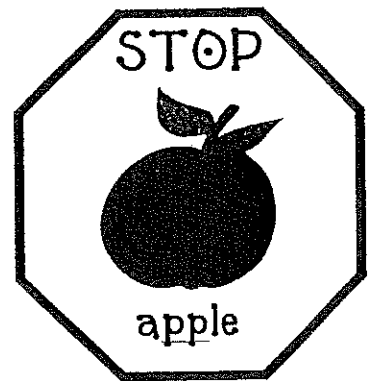

leopard

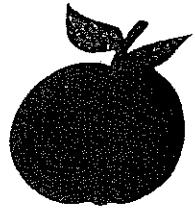

lipstick

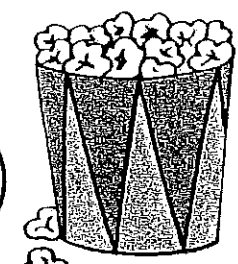

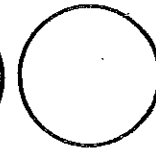

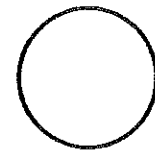

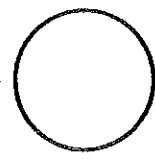

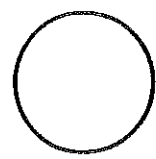

clipboard

STOP

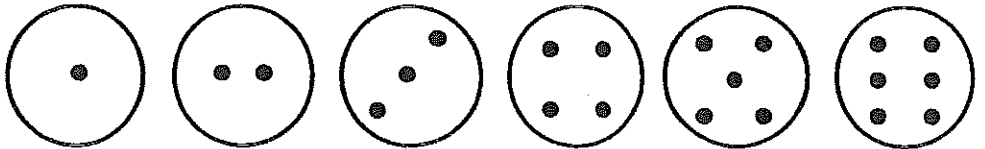

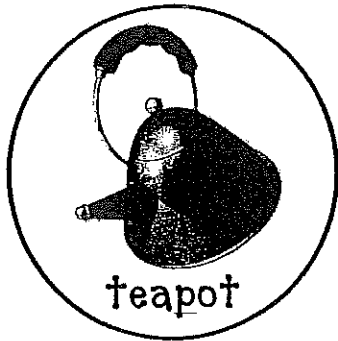

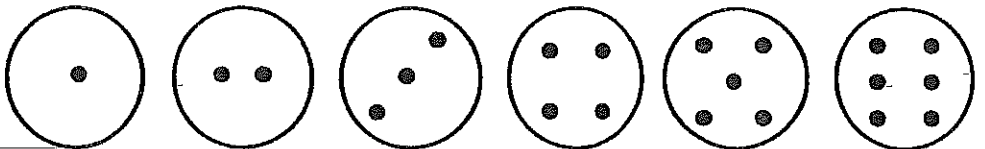

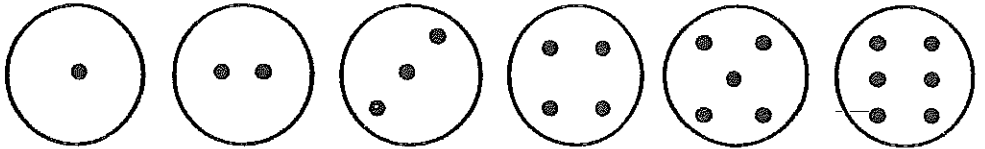

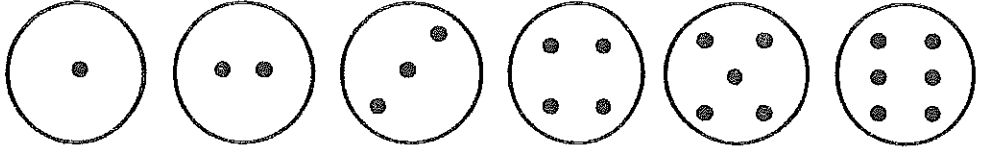

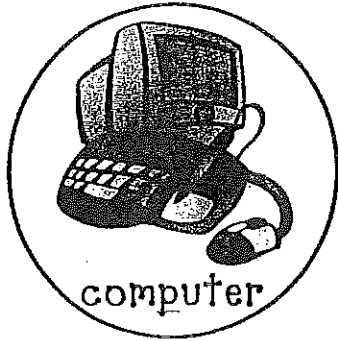

apple

popcorn

Rolling Dots

Directions: Read/say aloud all the words in the large circles. Roll the die. The number on the die determines how many times you must say the word. Use your ink dauber to dot in a circle each time you say the word. (If the die roll is three, say the word three times and mark out three circles.)

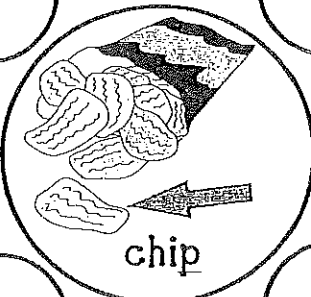

Dotting Circles

Directions: Read/say aloud all the words in the large circles. Then, take your ink dauber and mark each little circle as you say the picture eight times using your good P sound.

ape

A large central circle contains a cartoon illustration of an ape holding a banana. Below the illustration is the word "ape". This central circle is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

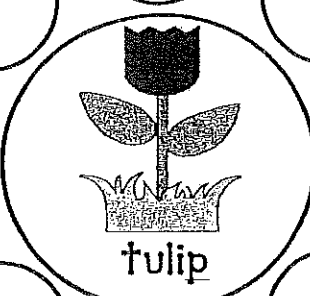

chip

A large central circle contains an illustration of a stack of french fries with an arrow pointing to one of them. Below the illustration is the word "chip". This central circle is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

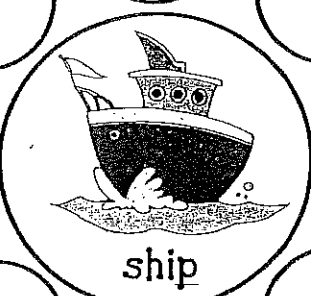

jump

A large central circle contains an illustration of a child jumping. Below the illustration is the word "jump". This central circle is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

tulip

A large central circle contains an illustration of a tulip flower. Below the illustration is the word "tulip". This central circle is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

ship

A large central circle contains an illustration of a steamship. Below the illustration is the word "ship". This central circle is surrounded by eight smaller empty circles for dotting.

Looking For Dots

Directions: Read/say aloud all the words in the squares. Listen carefully as your instructor says one of the words. Find the little circles that contain the corresponding picture. Repeat the word once, and then dot one little circle. Continue repeating the word until you have dotted each little circle that contains the corresponding picture.

